

21 Days of Prayer

Day 20:

Scripture:

“I came to you in weakness and fear, and with much trembling. My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit’s power, so that your faith might not rest on men’s wisdom, but on God’s power.” 1 Corinthians 2:3-5 NIV

Devotional:

Many times we shrink back from speaking the testimony in our lives and hearts because we think we need to have eloquent words, scholarly words and a more powerful story. Like Paul, we may even come with fear and trembling. But our words are not our own, but obedience to allow the Spirit to speak in and through us. Being transparent in the midst of struggle can have some of the greatest impact. It is in our imperfection that we can speak the loudest for the cause of Christ.

Prayer:

Lord Jesus, help me to speak out the words you put on my heart. That even with fear and trembling I would be able to speak aloud all that you have and done and are doing in my life. May I rely on your wisdom and not my own. You transform lives; I am just a vessel to partner with you in the Kingdom of the Most High. In Jesus name, Amen
